

Anotace v anglickém jazyce (Abstract)

This thesis is about the former royal castle Bezděz in the Ceska Lipa area, which was found by King Premysl Otakar II. The castle is an great example of the beginning of the Gothic style in the Czech lands in the second half of the 13th century. This thesis will focus on the architecture, construction and historical development of the castle and also to history and owners of the castle.